Arab American Heritage Month

As we come to the close of April and Arab American Heritage Month, here are five fun facts about Arab Americans and their contributions!

Did you know. . .

- Arab Americans come from both Africa and Southwest Asia, the latter commonly known as the Middle East?
- There are 3 major religions represented in the Arab World: Christianity, Judaism, and Islam, along with many other ones with smaller populations, which means an Arab American could surprise you by his or her faith identity!
- Did you know that singer Shakira, supermodel Gigi Hadid, and the actor Rami Malek, who portrayed Freddy Mercury in the movie about the rock group Queen, are all of Arab heritage?
- Have you heard of the Arab American Khalil Gibran? Did you know his book, The Prophet, along with his other words, has been translated into so many languages that he is among the top 5 best-selling poets in the world?
- Who has used an iPhone, AirPods, or a MacBook? Almost everyone in the world, right?! Did you know Apple Founder Steve Jobs was an Arab American?
