The provisions set forth in this Handbook may be altered, modified, changed, or eliminated at any time by the School District with or without notice. Every effort will be made to notify employees of any substantive changes to the Handbook, typically as an overview at the start of the school year. If substantive changes are made during the year, employees will be notified as soon as practicable thereafter. This Handbook supersedes any and all previous Handbooks, statements, policies, memorandums, procedures, rules, or regulations given to employees, whether verbal or written.

The School District of Greenfield also retains the right to exercise all managerial and administrative functions, responsibilities and prerogatives including, but not limited to, the right to exercise its judgment to establish and administer the policies and benefits outlined in this Employee Handbook, to direct and discipline its employees, and to take whatever act it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the District.

III. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The District provides equal employment opportunity for everyone regardless of age, sex, color, race, creed, national origin, religious persuasion, marital status, political belief, sexual orientation or disability that does not prohibit performance of essential job functions (Policy 3122). In addition, laws regarding military leave and veterans’ status are observed. This is reflected in all the District practices and policies regarding hiring, training, promotions, transfers, rates of pay, layoff and other forms of compensation. All matters relating to employment are based upon ability to perform the job, as well as dependability and reliability once hired. Reasonable accommodations shall be made for qualified individuals with a disability or handicap, unless such accommodations would impose an undue hardship to the District.

Employees shall use the District's grievance procedures (Policy 3340) for resolving disputes regarding employee termination, employee discipline or workplace safety issues. Any employee who believes he/she has been discriminated against may file a complaint.
