Are you ready to step up, lead, and make an impact? DECA is officially taking applications for next year's officer team!

Being a DECA officer isn't just a title - it's an opportunity to shape events, grow our chapter, build your leadership skills, and more. You'll gain business experience through planning meetings, attending conferences, leading service projects, and conducting fundraisers to create the culture that makes our chapter strong. DECA is also an international organization, which means you also have access to leadership opportunities at both the state and international levels - thinking beyond GHS is the ultimate resume builder and leadership experience.

If you're motivated, dependable, and ready to challenge yourself, we want you on the team. Application information will be on the DECA bulletin board by room 112. Don't wait - leaders aren't born, they step up. Are you ready to lead?
