

Good morning Hustlin Hawks! Today is Thursday, April 11, we are following a Day 3 schedule, and these are your daily announcements.

NEW ANNOUNCEMENTS

Link Leaders

Attention current Link Leaders: Please make sure that you have returned your binder and all Link materials to Mrs. McKeown so that you avoid any obligations that may be added to your account.

Science National Honor Society

Attention Science NHS members, our planting activity will be held TODAY after school in Mrs. Jensen's room. Hope to see you there!

National Autism Acceptance Month

April is National Autism Acceptance Month. We are asking everyone to help us show our support for people with autism by wearing either blue, which is often associated with calmness and acceptance, or red which represents the passion and heart of those on the autism spectrum TOMORROW.

We need to celebrate those with autism and help put an end to the stigmatization and discrimination associated with people with neurological differences. Consider this quote: "Autism is not a choice, acceptance is. Imagine if the opposite was true." Please consider wearing red or blue to show your support for people with autism tomorrow.

Attendance Shout Out

GHS, with only seven and a half weeks before summer vacation, the attendance team is shaking up our incentives. . . (drum roll). . . to the most improved attendance winners! We know that attendance matters to students' success, so each week we will still announce four attendance incentive winners! However, we will compare each student's semester 1 attendance average to the prior week's attendance. It will be based on the top four numbers and not necessarily represent top growth from each grade level. This is a great opportunity to finish strong and consider how you can keep growing and meeting goals as you finish the year.

So! For the week coming back from Spring Break compared to all of first semester, the following students are our winners: Daniel PS., Nikoma H., Anthony VG., Javier MT. Great job getting out of bed, getting to school on time, and making it on time to classes this semester! Our four winners may receive a pass and come down to the attendance office at this time.
