Patriot Day

Patriot Day commemorates the victims and heroes of the 2001 terrorist attacks, honoring the nearly 3,000 lives lost at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and in a field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania, as well as the first responders and service members who served with courage. Designated by Congress, the day is also a National Day of Service and Remembrance, encouraging Americans to reflect on the events, honor the victims, and recommit to the spirit of unity and patriotism that emerged after the attacks.

Extra-curricular/Athletic Event Attendance Guidelines

Are you ready to cheer on your classmates at upcoming games? Be sure you are on time to school and each class every day! Here are some important reminders about our attendance guidelines:

Any student with 12 or more tardies, truancies, or unexcused absences during the month will not be allowed to attend after-school events as a spectator until the following month.

To help you stay on track, here's what to keep in mind when checking your attendance:

- Unexcused Tardies (which are marked UT): Means late to school without an excuse.
- Truancies (which are marked TR): Means missing school or class without a valid excuse, exceeding 10 absences, skipping an entire class, or missing 15+ minutes of a class.
- Tardies (which are marked T): Means late to class. These will show in grey for each class under your attendance tab. Even if they're marked as "exempt," they still count towards event attendance.
