NEW ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hispanic Heritage Month

Happy week 2 of Hispanic Heritage Month, GHS! Today, let's talk about language. Spanish is spoken by hundreds of millions of people around the world, but Spanish isn't the only language connected to Hispanic and Latino communities. Depending on where people are from, they may also speak Portuguese, English, French, or Indigenous languages such as Nahuatl, Quechua, or Guaraní. Even Spanish itself sounds different from country to country—and sometimes even from one region to another! Here in Greenfield, about 1 in 6 residents identifies as Hispanic or Latino, and about 1 in 5 Greenfield residents speaks a language other than English at home. So this month, remember that language is more than just words—it can be a connection to family, history, identity, and culture. ¡Feliz semana 2 de Hispanic Heritage Month!

Science National Honor Society

The Konkell River Clean Up is being moved to next Monday. So there will not be a cleanup today, September 21. There will be a river clean up on Monday, September 28.
