DECA Field Trips

According to a new Stanford study, AI is already negatively impacting younger workers in entry-level positions. Researchers found a 13% decline across many occupations - software development and customer service roles being the most impacted. This means that existing roles will get much more competitive.

- There's still time to join DECA!
- DECA District Career Development Conference permission slips are due this Friday!
- AT&T on-site Job fair permission slips are also due this Friday.
- Both field trips are FREE for DECA members, but other students may attend - See Mr. Calder in room 107 for details.

Take a chance, step up, and gain confidence for your future self.

The lost and found tables are in the atrium this week. Please claim any items that belong to you. Items left on the tables by Thanksgiving break will be donated. The office has accumulated a lot of other items such as jewelry, keys, airpods, glasses and even some phones. Come to the office during passing time if you think any of these items may be yours.

You can bring non-perishable items such as:

- Canned vegetables and fruits
- Boxed stuffing, instant potatoes, or rice
- Canned soups, beans, or meats
