

Winona State University Admissions invites you to zoom with us Saturday, November 21 at 10 AM for our See-It-All Saturday & Meet What's Possible with Art & Design!

We hope you will join us for an Admissions & Warrior Life Information Session, Housing Exploration, and Current Students Spotlight, as well as a showcase of WSU's Art & Design Department. Sign up to attend through our Visits Calendar.

Nestled in the Mississippi River Valley in Winona, Minnesota, Winona State University is a public 4-year institution serving nearly 8,000 students across 80+ programs, nearly 180 student organizations, and 14 NCAA Division II Athletic Teams.

The Winona State University Art & Design Department offers the Bachelor of Arts degree with options in Studio Art, Graphic Design, or I-Design, and the Bachelor of Science degree in Art Education for K-12 teachers. Through a combination of studio and art history courses, art majors build cognitive skills while engaging in the inherently creative activities of the art process. Majors acquire interrelated skills in visual perception, creative problem-solving, and critical thinking, all of which complement the objectives of a liberal arts education. Majors and minors study the history of art, focusing on human achievements of the past and present, as well as the various criteria by which they are evaluated. Studio majors develop expertise in specific media area such as painting, drawing, sculpture, and ceramics. Students studying design, either through the I-Design or Graphic Design programs, enrich contemporary society and culture by creating unique expressive forms of communication and experiences through a broad range of design careers. In addition to their classes taken in the Department of Education, Art Education majors pursue a wide range of experiences in a variety of media to prepare them of K-12 Minnesota teacher certification.

WSU Admissions
(507)457-5100
admissions@winona.edu

WSU Art & Design Department Chair
Adrian Barr
abarr@winona.edu